

SUDDEN DEATH ENDS YR. PROSE

Taking Another Man's Automobile from Garage Two Men are badly Hurt in Accident, One of them being Killed.

As the result of a joy ride in the car borrowed without the owner's consent, Edgar E. Vane, son of John C. Vane, of Pennsylvania, and his brother Charles Vane, sustained several injuries. Another man in the car escaped without any serious injuries.

The automobile which belonged to F. S. Parkinson, of Richmond, Va., is a latest model.

The automobile is said to have been taken from the garage of the House Vane Spring Hotel after one of the riders is alleged to have obtained the garage key by climbing through an open window.

Accounts of the accident are vague. Charles C. Vane, the injured brother of the dead boy, and son of the proprietor of the House Vane Hotel, says "Charles, who was driving the car, was not at the wheel of the car when it crashed into the tree. Lasts says he was in the back seat."

It is known however, that the car was being driven at a high rate of speed at the time, and that at midnight, the car was taken on the road and the "joy rider" had the car crashed into the tree.

The crash occurred on Route Vane, where the roadway is not wide and the car was driven at a high rate of speed. The car was driven at a high rate of speed and the car was driven at a high rate of speed.
